Making Valentines

We had a perfectly low key picnic with some special popcorn and fruit
then shared Valentines
from the Mailbox. Thank you families for participating as much or
as little as you could :)

Our class Fairy Garden

It started as a stump and has slowly become a beautiful place to play. The children are working on collaboration and cooperation as they use the space together.

Heavy work!

The children used their BIG muscles to unload and roll the new planter bricks.

I was impressed by their strength and determination!

We were lucky to have some of the older students come out and play this week. They inspired and supported the build of a new BIG structure!

Lots of bug and mud adventures lately!

The story we're playing with this week is The Three Billy Goats Gruff. We read the book, listened to a song version, did the flannel board story, and then built a setting to play in. One of our goals was to identify the setting as we learn parts of a story, but my favorite part is always leaving space for them to get creative and build their own story!
